Tom Ford can do wrong. His new cologne Noir is a multifaceted scent, mixing bergamot oil, black pepper, leather and vanilla. Unsurprisingly sensual and mysterious.

TX Blended Whiskey is an All-American blend made in this neck of the woods, in Fort Worth, Texas. This whiskey has a robust flavor, smooth with hints of sweetness. Each bottle cap has a different story: The materials either come from salvaged, donated materials like ostrich boots, lizard leather or cowhide. www.frdistilling.com
